

Overview

Ryan Witthans joined Finestone Hayes LLP as an associate in 2018. In addition to his experience arguing and briefing and cases at the trial court level, Ryan has successfully argued before the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and drafted briefs before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

From 2014 to 2018, Ryan was a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Stephen L. Johnson of the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California.

Ryan graduated from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law in 2014. While in law school, Ryan received awards for his writing, oral advocacy, and negotiation skills, including First Place in the 2013 Lewis & Clark Western Regional Environmental Law Negotiation Competition. He received Witkin Awards in Academic Excellence and CALI Excellence for the Future Awards in the courses of Mediation, International Business Negotiation, and Intellectual Property Concentration Seminar. He served as Director of Professional Development and later as Alumni Advisor to the Hastings Intellectual Property Association and as Senior Article Editor for the Hastings Communication and Entertainment Law Journal, COMM/ENT.

In his free time, Ryan enjoys raising his son Ethan, cycling, and the outdoors.

Representative Experience

General civil representation

Represented a solar company in federal district court to successfully add an alter ego entity (which held the defendant enterprise's valuable assets) to a $3.3 million judgment pursuant to Cal. Code Civ. P. § 187 following extensive international discovery and a contested hearing. Drafted appeal brief before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Represented a cosmetics company defendant in its appeal of a bankruptcy court's recognition of a $1.1 million foreign default judgment. The district court reversed the bankruptcy court's recognition of the judgment and found that the foreign court lacked personal jurisdiction over our client. Drafted appeal briefs before the District Court for the Northern District of California and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Part of a multi-firm team that represented a liquidating trust plaintiff with claims for fraudulent transfer, breach of fiduciary duty, and alter ego liability in a case arising from institutional mortgage fraud. Managed extensive third-party discovery involving subpoenas to approximately forty private, public, and government entities. The case was resolved by obtaining a favorable settlement for our client.

Bankruptcy debtor representation

Represented a food preparation and deliver company debtor to confirm a Chapter 11 liquidating plan and sell assets including intellectual property and a real property lease.

Represented a cosmetics company debtor to confirm a Chapter 11 reorganization plan to restructure products liability claims.

Represented a marine vessel maintenance company debtor to confirm a Chapter 11, Subchapter V reorganization plan to resolve labor union claims.

Obtained dismissal of a complaint alleging wide-ranging claims of fraud and nondischargeable debts against the debtor following the failure of a joint venture. Drafted appeal brief and successfully argued the appeal before the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Bankruptcy creditor representation

Represented the largest contractor of PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company in their 2019 Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases. Obtained full payment with interest for our client.

Represented a creditor with a $9 million claim in the 2020 Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of Neiman Marcus and related debtors.

Other bankruptcy-related representation

Represented a lender as it financed a nationwide restaurant chain undergoing Chapter 11 reorganization.

Represented a Chapter 7 trustee to liquidate a corporate debtor's stake in an international cosmetics company and to recover, via a favorable settlement, amounts due from another cosmetics company pursuant to promissory notes, credit notes, and licensing and distribution agreements.

Represented a nonprofit that received donations from a corporate debtor against the trustee's fraudulent conveyance action, settling the case for far less than the trustee's expected recovery and for less than the anticipated legal fees to defend the case.

Represented a liquidating trustee to liquidate the assets of a wine estate and unwind fraudulent transfers made for the benefit of the debtor's friends, family, and insiders.
